

A SELECTION OF OUR COFFEES

COSTA RICA

A much prized coffee of Central America, grown at high altitude, light flavour with slight acidic overtones, good to drink at any time.

COLOMBIAN

A mild arabica growth, nice bodied, rich and full in the cup with a slight "winey" flavour, a nice after dinner coffee but also good for any other time.

KENYAN

A fine classic coffee, it gives a full bodied flavour in the cup, plenty of acidity. The acidity is not to everybody's taste and sometimes described as bitter. A real coffee drinkers coffee!

MOUNTAIN BLEND

The very best of Central American and African arabica coffees, blended to give full body and flavour, an excellent coffee for any establishment for drinking any time of the day.

COSTA RICA LAGUNA

The very best of this fine coffee from the much respected Laguna estate.

HONDURAS ESTATE DIRECT

Not only do you benefit from the finest Honduras coffee but you have the added satisfaction of knowing that the premium above the price of the coffee has gone directly to the local community. A pleasant tasting mild arabica coffee.

MOCHA

This coffee comes from Ethiopia, the home of the original coffee plant. It has a distinct flavour which is often described as "gamey" or "wild", traditionally it is used to make Turkish coffee.

BRAZIL

Brazil is the world's largest coffee producer. The UK market mainly buys from the Santos region. The coffee being a good bodied mild favoured neutral type of coffee with a slight nutty taste.
